Meet the Author

Author Clarice Burnett is committed to work that lifts the human spirit through listening, connecting people to resources and each another.

Clarice's most treasured experiences include co-founding a nonprofit organization and social service work in probation counseling and Survival Skills for Women. She currently enjoys facilitating a weekly grief support group with an international organization.

She has military roots in Texas and has lived in the Middle East and Germany. At 60, she attained her dream of becoming a Licensed Master Social Worker.

Clarice declares "all is well" to inspire others to discover hope by activating the one vital choice.

Love Lost Hope Found is a memoir and devotional for those who have lost a loved one and wondered how to go on. If your journey through loss has left you depleted of hope, meet powerful parents and a family whose perspective catapulted them into a new reality.

A reader could choose any day of the devotional to find fresh inspiration and insight for their present condition. Although the Gibsons' story was uniquely tragic, discover their one decision that became a trajectory of hope.
