

CALEB CARR

Author Bio

Caleb Carr is a 9-year-old storyteller with a big imagination. Inspired by his own daydreams and adventures, Caleb decided to write a book to inspire kids like him. With the support of his family, Caleb created Caleb and the Daydream Beans, his very first book. When he's not writing, Caleb loves cars, football, and creating new adventures.

Book Bio

What if your daydreams came to life?

Caleb never thought much about the little pouch of beans Auntie gave him on his birthday. But one day, as he sits on a hay bale, something amazing happens—his daydreams turn into real-life adventures!

From zooming in a race car and saving the day as a firefighter to driving a monster truck and winning the big game, Caleb discovers the magic of dreaming big. Each time he wakes up, he wonders: Was it all real, or just a dream?

Written by 9-year-old Caleb Carr, Caleb and the Daydream Beans is a fun and inspiring story about the power of imagination. Perfect for young readers who love adventure, laughter, and a little bit of magic!

“What would YOU dream if you had magic beans?”
