

VELVET “V11VT” GUNN

"Velvet 'V11VT' Gunn is an Artist, Author, and the creator of A Gunn Show Productions [AGSP]. Velvet has always found creative arts and self-expression to be powerful healing outlets. Over time, she discovered that these gifts not only enriched her life, but also the lives of others. Today, Velvet's passion for self-expression and community connection drives her work, inspiring audiences to embrace their own gifts as tools for healing. With a deep belief in synchronicity, she engages with the world through writing , art , and curated experiences. Velvet aims to continue creating art that challenges perspectives, music that calms the mind, and experiences that provide resources for life, creativity, and healing."

11 is not just a book; it is a guide to illuminate your perspective. Every page is imbued with insights that resonate deeply with where you are in your life right now. The title itself represents alignment, synchronicity, and perfect timing. There is no coincidence even in you reading this message at this moment. You will find words and wisdom that speak directly to your soul, divinely orchestrated to meet you. While reading, be open and ready to be amazed in ways that may seem miraculous. The right words will appear—seemingly by divine design—carrying the answers, comfort, or clarity you seek. Trust that this moment and your experience in “11” is a part of a greater unfolding meant to align you with your highest self , purpose and brightest mind.

