

Jae Henderson

About The Author

Inspirational author Jae Henderson began publishing books in 2014 to encourage Christian singles. Her books, Someday, Someday II, Forever and A Day, Things Every Good Woman Should Know I and II, Husband Wanted, Where Do We Go From Here I and II, and From Here to There (which she co-authored with Mario D. King) have received rave reviews. Jae uses her keen insight into human emotion to deliver powerful messages of God's love, and the importance of making wise decisions while delivering hilarious laughs. She also proudly touts that there is nothing wrong with being single. In 2022, she published her first children's book, Prayers for Janaya: My Friend Is Sick, What Can I Do? as a tribute to her niece who battled cancer for six years. It serves a vehicle for discussion and compassion for ill children everywhere.

Jae is a graduate of The University of Memphis where she earned a BA in Communications and an MA in English. When Jae isn't writing, speaking, or volunteering, she works as a public relations/media specialist. She currently resides in her hometown of Memphis, TN.

Book Bio

Celeste and Janaya are best friends! Unfortunately, Janaya is battling a childhood illness that sometimes causes her to feel bad and requires hospitalization. Celeste looks to her mother to help her understand what her friend is going through and how she can help. This book is a great way to explain the effects of illness to young children and how their positive energy and prayers can serve as special kind of medicine.

Author: Jae Henderson

Category: Children's Fiction

Print ISBN:978-0-9969168-4-4

Publisher: Put It In Writing

