

A.A. Higgins

A. A. Higgins, pursued his dream of becoming an author, graduating with distinction from Booker T. Washington High School and briefly studying Psychology and Business Management in college before prioritizing fatherhood. A.A. Higgins writes fervently, drawing inspiration from the rich tapestry of his family's lives, driven by his unwavering dedication to God, family, and the power of storytelling. Higgins unveils an exhilarating tale of mystery, adventure, and ancient intrigue in his latest release, The Egyptian Princess & The Lost Treasure.

The Egyptian Princess & the Lost Treasure

This is a story of a young adventurous princess who loves challenges and taking care of others. Alongside her is her trusty sidekick and best friend Zazu, who is a strong and courageous bald eagle. They battle the desert and heat in search of the lost treasure, which has been lost for many years. Destined to find it, Princess Amarii embarks on a dangerous journey across the desert. Battling the heat, storms, dangerous puzzles, and snakes. Just to find out who she really is and how brave, courageous, and fearless she is. Her goal is to find the treasure just to share the wealth with everyone who is less fortunate.

