BIO OF STEPHANIE M.
JONES

STEPHANIE M. JONES

Stephanie M. Jones is a Memphis Native, who is a member of the USCF (United States Chess Federation). She is in the 1% ratio of African American Women who have played chess at a competitive level in national events. Of which, she considers an honor. Beyond her passion of chess, she is of the Christian Faith and has worked in various branches of the Government (United States Armed Forces, Internal Revenue Service, and United States Postal Service) for over 35 years. Stephanie is the mother of two adult children, Jerimiah and Corinthia Jones. Stephanie believes in living her life like it's golden "Golden", accepting challenges and living a purposeful life.

BOOK BIO

ON TOP OF HER GAME INSPIRATIONS has been immensely rewarding to compile such a plethora of rich wisdom, from those who have contributed an impressionable mark of inspiration to the world! Inclusive written words, from those such as: Grandmaster chess players, writers of the KJV of the bible, famous motivational speakers, preachers, celebrities, relative, friends, "playas from the Himalayas". Intertwined with a few of my inspirations. Quotes, chess tips, teachings, and illustrations for your enrichment.
