Kifani is a Swahili word that means a similar thing, that which matches, a fellow, parallel, a match, an equal. Kifani Press | Kifani Works was founded by sister-duo Ashley Foxx Davis and April Foxx in 2012. We curate and create books, resources and professional development for a diverse group of kids and classrooms.

Our Values: Faith, Creativity, Kindness

Our Mission: Kifani Press | Kifani Works strives to inspire a love of reading through great books, literacy resources and educational experiences. We hope to always use our talents in service of others.

What We Do: We are passionate about literacy and education. We have three areas of focus: children's book publishing, children's book selling and educational consulting.

Our Published Works: Keisha Cane and Her Very Sweet Tooth (Kifani Press, 2014), Yani and Shani's Rainy Day (Kifani Press, 2015), I Just Kept Spinning (Kifani Press, 2017), Jazz Steps Up (Kifani Press for ALLMemphis, 2021), Tish and Tam Get Out the Vote (Kifani Press for ALLMemphis, 2021) Deuce, the Second Grade Sleuth, and the Case for Justice (Kifani Press for ALLMemphis, 2021)

Shelby County A-Z celebrates Shelby County with a new picture book for early readers. Using colorful photography and illustrations, this book walks through the alphabet and highlights important sites throughout the county. Perfect for pre-kindergarten to first grade students, Shelby County A-Z can be read aloud or read together.
