

Author Profile

Zelda Fitzgerald Hill is an author, community educator, and advocate whose work centers on kindness, courage, and family legacy. Based in Southaven, Mississippi, Zelda is a Community Educator for the Alzheimer's Association and the founder of the nonprofit For My Dad. His writing journey began through personal caregiving experiences, inspiring books that uplift children and families alike.

Featured Book: Duck & Bubba – The Secret Fist Bump

This heartwarming children's picture book introduces Duck and Bubba, two young superheroes who learn the power of friendship, kindness, and teamwork. Through playful storytelling and vibrant illustrations, the book helps children ages 3–8 understand empathy, confidence, and how small acts of kindness can make a big difference.