

DANIEL REECE

Daniel writes across all genres but enjoys speculative fiction, emo YA, fantasy, and sci-fi. In 2019, Daniel gathered his writing buddies and launched their first anthology, Malfunction Junction: Memphis Stories of Starts, Stops, Wrong Turns, & Dead Ends which won the Richard Wright Award by the Memphis Public Library in 2022. Against his better judgment, he once again dragged his friends into another journey in 2023 with a second anthology, Malfunction Junction: Close Encounters of the Third Street Kind. He published his first novel Knight and Daye and the sequel, Knight and Daye: Box of Darkness. Knight and Daye: Box of Darkness won the Richard Wright Award by Memphis Public Library for Best YA Fiction in 2024. Daniel lives in Memphis with his wife and daughter.

KNIGHT AND DAYE: BOX OF DARKNESS

It's been over a year since the fire. Donovan and Brianna have taken up the cause and become full vampire hunters. They are suddenly thrown into the heart of the Slayer Brotherhood. They gather their friends, travel to Paris, and embark on a deadly mission to fight through a mystical realm of eternal night known as the Pitch. At the end of their road, they must face and defeat the vampire queen, The Madam, who has plans for the star-crossed Slayers. Meanwhile, another fated pair, Donovan's brother and sister, are hatching schemes of their own. Journey with all of them in Knight and Daye: Box of Darkness.
