

Karina Silva

Karina Silva is an independent bilingual author who writes in English and Spanish. Her work explores emotion, kindness, and human connection through both reflective literature and children's stories.

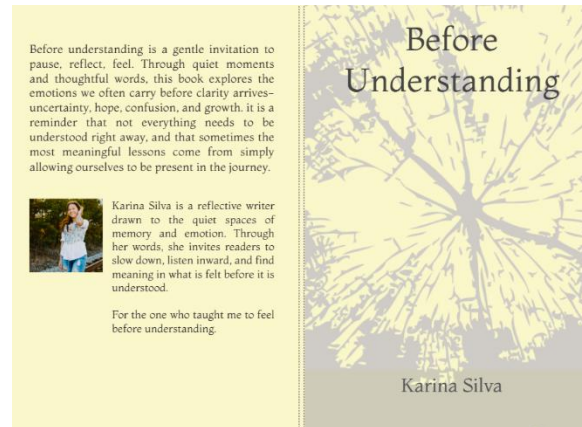

Her books combine thoughtful storytelling with meaningful illustrations, inviting readers of all ages to pause, feel, and imagine. Inspired by everyday life and family, her stories are created with simplicity, warmth, and intention.

Books

The Giant in the Red Cape

A bilingual children's story about courage, kindness, and empathy.

Before Understanding

A reflective Literary Work exploring emotions and finding clarity.