

Messiah Irby

Messiah Irby is a bright and imaginative seven-year-old who has a deep passion for reading, writing, and learning. As a young author, he proudly contributed to writing his own book, expressing his thoughts and creativity in a powerful way. Messiah enjoys focusing on his schoolwork and is always eager to gain new knowledge and improve his skills. He has a natural love for storytelling and often uses his imagination to bring ideas to life. His dedication to learning and his creativity make him a strong student and a promising young writer.

Memphis Parks
Literacy Meets Recreation
Young Authors Guild Inaugural Member

PRANK NIGHT UNDER THE Full Moon

BY MESSIAH IRBY

MAX

ELI

NOAH

JAYDEN

ILLUSTRATED BY BRITTANY DEANES

About the Book

Four best friends. One scary old witch.
What could possibly go wrong?

Max, Eli, Noah, and Jayden think it'll be hilarious to prank the witch who lives at the edge of town. But when fireworks explode on her porch, the witch explodes with rage-and zaps the boys straight into her spooky house! Now trapped inside with creaky floorboards, locked doors, and something banging upstairs, the boys must find a way out before it's too late.

Books available for purchase online at Amazon and Barnes and Noble
www.liberationpublishing.com